

Where Do You Stand?

While rigorous public debate has been one of the hallmarks of a free society, quite often the clear teaching of Scripture is drowned out in the convergence of public opinion, political pressures and religious pretenders. The most recent moral issue to reach the level of public discourse is that of same-sex marriage.

The purpose of this ad is to lovingly, gently, yet firmly remind the community that the God of Scripture has already addressed this issue (Romans 1:26-28). Same sex relations as well as any other form of sexual immorality, has, is, and always will be considered “sin” and is an affront to a Holy God.

What is at stake? For unbelievers nothing is at stake because they are lost already (John 3:18).

For the believer, it is a matter of being obedient to the Biblical witness which is the sole arbiter of truth (John 17:17). For churches to ignore the Biblical witness is “to be cast out and to be trodden under the foot of men” (Matthew 5:13).

Contrary to the personal opinion of the President and the NAACP, this is not a civil rights issue. It is a moral issue. Humanity cannot legitimately strive for “rights” which are not naturally endowed by God.
